

What are paging groups?

42 Fri, Feb 2, 2024 Account Administration

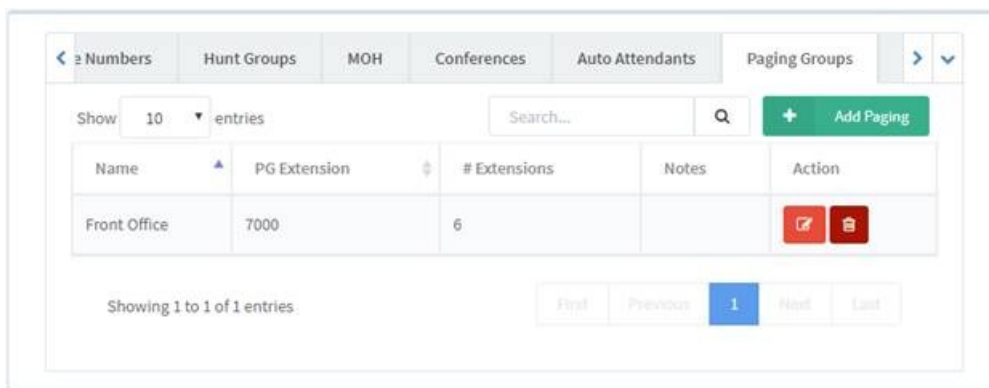

Question

What are paging groups?

Answer

Paging groups can be set up so that when dialed, multiple extensions will be dialed. Rules to follow when adding extensions are the following:

For Cisco phones auto answer needs to be enabled manually.

Button that will open the Create Paging Group page. Paging Group Information must be entered to create a paging group

Name – Given name of the paging group.

Name

Given name of the paging group.

PG Extension

The assigned extension for the paging group.

Extensions

Quantity of extensions that are currently selected to be paged.

Notes

Optional field that can describe the group.

Action

Options to edit and delete the group using  and .

Applies To

MAXvoice

Call Floq

Online URL: <https://help.maxcore.io/article-42.html>